Website hosting through lightsail in AWS

1. Login to console , click on the lightsail service
2. Create instance
3. Select the region for the instance i.e Mumbai, India.
4. Pick your instance image and platform
5. Select the application and operating system i.e. Linux and word press.
6. For Choose your instance plan, choose a plan, or leave the selected default plan.
7. For Name your instance, enter a name for the instance, or leave the suggested default name.
8. For the number of instances, enter the number of instances you want to create, or leave the default of a single instance (x 1).
9. Choose Create instance.
10. After creating the instance connect the instance.
11. The Connect tab, for Connect using your own SSH client, note the Public IP.
12. Open the new tab in chrome, paste the public IP, an run it.
13. You will get the word press website.